

Give Your Student a Competitive Advantage

Help your student thrive in college, their career, and in life.

The Challenges of Today's Student:

The cost of college is rising; admissions and scholarships are more competitive than ever!

Many students are unprepared for college and are taking too long to graduate - Over 40% of students are not prepared academically for college and over 60% are taking 6 years or more to graduate increasing their college cost even more. - National Center for Education Statistics

Students who enter college unprepared are less satisfied post-college - Over half of college graduates surveyed would change their major, their college, or their degree plan. - Strada-Gallup
